

Three Tenses

As I look back, I know I was
As I look before me, I know I am
As I look beyond, I know I will be.

Was / is / will be three tenses, when conflated, spell out the name of Divinity YHWH.

Hayah / Hoveh / Yiheh
Was / is / will be
The name of Godliness.

Hold on, to but one tense
We tempt idolatry
Hold on while I know myself better
I am more than I was more than I am more than what I will be
And I will be yet more
I am the reflection of the divine unity of time.

Where is the time of Godliness?
In no space, in no place
Neither above nor below.

Not where, but when, is Godliness
In every moment, in every breath of my life in every exultation, in every depression.

We gather not only to remember the past but to remember this moment and to remember the future.

We are created in time
We are created in the image of
Was / is / will be.
